

Carterton Leisure Centre – Carterton, Oxfordshire

Albury S.I. Ltd carried out a combined Phase 1 and Phase 2 investigation for the extension to Carterton Leisure Centre. This entailed a series of boreholes across the site with hand-dug trial pits to ascertain the existing foundation details. The local geology was inferred to be the Forest Marble Formation to the north and the Cornbrash to the south, both of Jurassic age.

2017

