

Lymington Seawater Baths

Albury S.I. Ltd carried out an investigation at Lymington Seawater Baths which included a 30m deep borehole through the superficial Tidal and River Terrace Deposits, into the Barton Group.

This was supplemented by several boreholes around the listed pool structure using hand-held window sampling. An investigation into the existing pool retaining walls was also carried out by vertical and horizontal diamond coring.

